Welcome to Europe!

Comfortably nestled in suburban Geilenkirchen is a fully furnished, large detached home ready to exceed your need for temporary lodging. Just minutes away from NATO E3A AWACS Air Base and Joint Force Command Headquarters, Brunssum, The Netherlands, this home has all the comforts you are looking for. Your family will feel right at home in this spacious accommodation consisting of four bedrooms, bathroom, shower with water closet, living and dining areas, fully furnished and fitted kitchen, child's play room, basement party room, private laundry room with washer and dryer, terrace, spacious garden, and garaged private parking. The Lodge also features television and video recorder, with SKY digital satellite service. Also, weekly maid service will ensure your stay is comfortable. Within easy walking distance is central Geilenkirchen, which boasts several local supermarkets, bakeries, restaurants, pubs, specialty and snack shops and local hospital services. For the same price as a hotel room, you get the full advantage of a spacious family home in a quiet suburban setting overflowing with convenience. The Lodge is privately owned and operated by a family with experience in the business of providing comfortable temporary quarters since 1994.
